

The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill

The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill is an organization of people with severe mental illnesses and their families. Organized in 1979, NAMI has over 210,000 members in more than 1,000 affiliate groups across the country providing support, education, and advocacy to improve the lives of persons with schizophrenia, manic-depression, clinical depression, obsessive-compulsive disorder, panic disorder, severe childhood disorders, and other serious mental illnesses.

NAMI's address is:

The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill
Colonial Place Three
2107 Wilson Boulevard, Suite 300
Arlington, VA 22201
Web site: <http://www.nami.org>.

Call the toll-free HELPLINE with questions and requests for materials or information about contacting your state and local affiliates: (800) 950-NAMI (950-6264).

Information from the NAMI Web site.

This content is reviewed periodically and is subject to change as new health information becomes available. The information is intended to inform and educate and is not a replacement for medical evaluation, advice, diagnosis or treatment by a healthcare professional.